22 v.

24 Defendant.

Case No. CR 15-229 PJH

26
27 The status report filed by the government indicates, as it previously stated at the 28 September 21, 2016 status hearing, that the nine defendants charged in the abovecaptioned cases should be the first to appear for Rule 11 hearings on new plea agreements because the government expects to call them at trial in United States v. Florida, No. CR 14-582 PJH. The government neglects to propose a streamlined procedure for taking the revised pleas or other suggestions for expediting the Rule 11 hearings, which the court anticipated when setting the filing deadline for the status report based on the representations of counsel for the government. Rather, the government states that it “hopes to request the first Rule 11 hearings for a subset of these defendants as soon as the end of the week of October 3, 2016.” Doc. no. 89. The government’s statement fails to appreciate that the court must rule on pretrial matters in Florida at the pretrial conference set for October 12, 2016, which includes defendants’ objections to co-conspirator statements and requests for disclosures, and the court is at a loss as to how it can rule on the pretrial issues presented in Florida before the nine testifying defendants have entered a revised plea.

Accordingly, the court specially sets the change of plea hearings in the above-captioned cases on Friday, October 7, 2016, at 9:00 a.m. Any party that wishes to advance the change of plea hearing to October 5, 2016, at 1:30 p.m., may do so by filing a stipulated request to advance the change of plea hearing.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Dated: September 30, 2016
